

COMMITMENTS

OF THE CDC NATIONAL IMMUNIZATION PROGRAM

We are committed to—

- Promoting immunization at every stage of life
- Providing effective, proactive leadership on vaccines and immunization
- Strengthening immunization science and communicating the results
- Fostering and establishing partnerships and collaboration
- Providing effective, responsive immunization education and information
- Working with partners to improve health in the United States and globally